Word From Your Managers

Please keep in mind that per your lease, you must report all income and family composition changes within 7-10 days of the change. If you fail to do so, this can lead to a back rent being placed on your account or lease violations.

Meet Stephan Shannon, New Albany Housing Authority's new Education Resource Coordinator.

Mr. Shannon is from Chicago, Illinois and graduated from Southern Illinois University of Carbondale in 2013. He will be serving as the liaison between families, principals, teachers, and school leadership. He stated that his goal, while working with families, will be to provide them with the tools and resources the students need both inside and outside of school. "I'm looking forward to extending an after school program in the fall. A program that will include tutoring, workshops, college tours, assistance with FASFA's, mentors for younger school aged children as well as peer mentoring opportunities for older students," stated Shannon. The housing authority is excited for all the great things Mr. Shannon has in store and cannot wait to build stronger relationships with our NAHA families. If you would like the opportunity to speak with Shannon face to face, he will be making an appearance at each site conducting a 'Meet and Greet'. For more information, contact Mr. Shannon by phone at 812.206.2066 or by email: sshannon@nahain.com.

Family Self Sufficiency Success

Ms. Anna Bell has been a New Albany Housing Authority resident for many years. Anna had not worked a formal job in a long time. She had been busy raising her three kids and then found herself helping out with after school care for her two grandchildren. Anna walked into the Family Self Sufficiency office with her daughter Catherine and decided that there were many things she wanted to do. At the top of the list was to get a job. After enrolling in the FSS Program in April 2018, things started happening quickly! Anna's personal case manager Cindy S. was able to enroll Anna in a special pay work program through National ABLE. Anna began working as our FSS Receptionist. Anna came in and put her skills she had developed as a mother and grandmother to good use! She whipped the front office into shape! Anna runs our FSS office with a genuine care for each person that comes through the door. She has a high standard of professionalism. Anna also recruits new clients to our FSS Program. Ms. Anna is currently enrolled in our Adult Education Program here at the Family Support office. She is dedicated to obtaining her High School Diploma. Anna is working on passing one final math requirement, and then she will be a successful High School Equivalency graduate.

Ms. Anna attends all our FSS Meetings such as Financial Empowerment & Budgeting Classes, Homeownership Class, Holistic Hardware, Healthy Cooking and much more. She has completed a (6) week college introduction class with IVY TECH. She has volunteered to help assist with our NAHA resident events. Ms. Anna has been empowered and inspired by all her new challenges.

Stop by FSS or call so we can help you start working on your future!
